

ARCHELON

The Sea Turtle Society of Greece

we can all live together

ARCHELON was founded in 1983 under the name "The Sea Turtle Protection Society of Greece" and is a non-profit association with the aim of studying and protecting sea turtles and their habitats.

what we do

- For the last 40 years ARCHELON has been active in the most important nesting beaches of Greece (Zakynthos, Peloponnese, Crete) monitoring and protecting the reproductive activity of loggerhead sea turtles
- Since 2000, ARCHELON has been studying the origin, migrations, and growth rate of sea turtle populations (Amvrakikos gulf)
- Since 1994, the ARCHELON Sea Turtle Rescue Centre (in Glyfada) treats injured or sick sea turtles rescued from around the country
- ARCHELON members participate in the International Association of Sea Turtle Experts as well as in Mediterranean and international conferences for the formulation of a strategy for the protection of sea turtles

Rescue & Rehabilitation of sick and injured sea turtles

Raising awareness in local and international communities

Research, Monitoring & protection of the sea turtle reproductive activity

Conservation of coastal ecosystems

activity areas

ARCHELON in numbers

75-110

km of nesting beaches are monitored every summer

1.500

sea turtles have been treated at the Rescue Centre

5.500

nests are protected every summer

10.000

students participate in environmental education activities every year

15.000

volunteers from all over the world have participated in conservation projects

80.000

visitors are informed about sea turtle conservation every year

ARCHELON, recognizing the important contribution of all those who help by supporting its work, has defined a system of mutual benefits with the aim of promoting and highlighting the Social Corporate Responsibility program in the field of the Environment for the protection of sea turtles

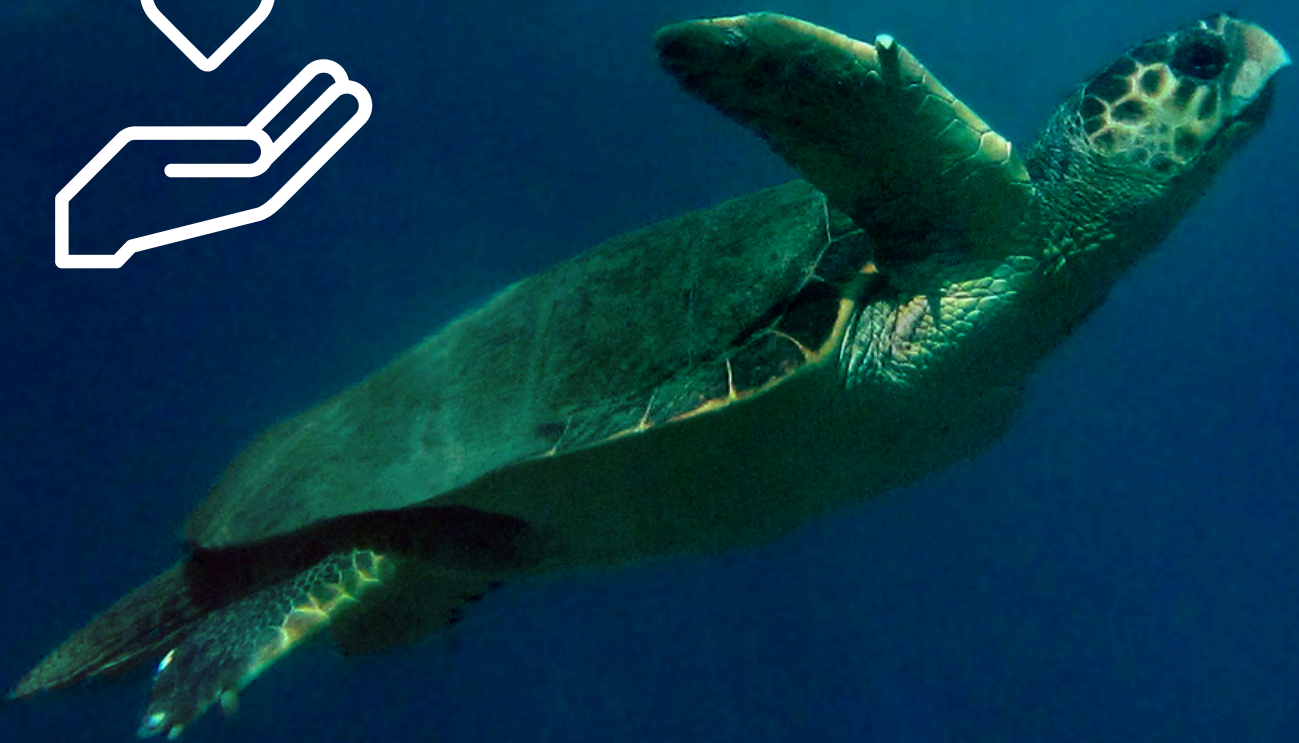

- Display of company name among the list of supporters on our official website
- Special mention your company in an article on our website, social networks and/or the quarterly newsletter
- Providing photos of the donated products from the field and the Rescue Centre, for your own use in promoting the partnership
- Possibility of a guided tour at the Rescue Centre or one of ARCHELON's Field Projects for your team
- Possibility to participate and watch a sea turtle release after rehabilitation for your team
- Other communication actions in collaboration with the company

ARCHELON keeps its supporters active through actions and events that can be co-organized with your help!

SUPPORT ARCHELON FOR A BETTER AND SUSTAINABLE PLANET

we can all live together

